Hello Dancers,

Halloween was a fun night at RollHaven. The costume contest was a tough one this year with so many great costumes. Jenna Comea won for best female costume-gold digger; Ray Belcher won for best male costume-Mad Max warrior; and Ben Meadows & Pat O'Neill won for best couple-the beekeeper & the bee. A big thanks to Noreen Glaspie for bringing her homemade, yummy desserts.

November is a busy month for our club! We will honor all our members whom are military veterans on the 8th. Don't forget about the Food Drive for Flint's North End Soup Kitchen. Please bring in canned food and non-perishables every Wednesday before Thanksgiving. I will also have a cash jar at the admission desk for anyone wanting to make a monetary donation. There will be a Board Meeting held at Ernie Callard's home on November 20th. This will be our last meeting in 2023. All current members are welcome to attend.

Have you thought about New Years Eve yet, well we have. Tonya Gerow and her team are already working on providing us another spectacular NYE dance party at St. John's in Fenton. The theme this year is Candy Cane Lane. There will be a catered, buffet dinner instead of finger food. The cost this year is $35 each until December 27th, afterwards $40 and at the door. Tickets will be available soon.

November's lesson is West Coast Swing taught by Terry Council for the first four (4) weeks. Andrea Venner will teach line dances the last week. The DJ's line up: Angela, Dave, Dave, Angela and Laurel.

Happy Thanksgiving,

Jim
