

JULY 2022

GREAT LAKES SWING DANCE NEWS

Message from our President

Greetings Dancers,

The latest club Board meeting was held on June 13th at Ernie Callard's home. The meeting started @ 6pm, all Board members were present along with one (1) club member. We discuss the following topics at each of our meetings: committee reports, old business, new business and the suggestion box. The next Board meeting is scheduled for September 12th, 2022 @ 6pm.

The club's annual picnic is coming up - August 7th - the Polish Veteran's Park located at 4523 W. Carpenter Rd. It's free for all club members, all others will be charged $10 at the gate. We will be dancing inside the hall again this year due to some maintenance issues at the park. Angela Markle will be the DJ for this event.

I know it's early to be thinking about our club elections but they will be here before you know it. In November we will have the election of officers for the 2023/24 Board term. All positions are open to any member in good standing. If you're interested, please submit your name and desired position to glsdcwebmaster@comcast.net by October 31, 2022.

Our July lesson is FoxTrot taught by Pam Malow-Isham. DJ line-up: Dave, Ed, Angela, Dave and Ed.

Have a happy & safe 4th,

Jim

SWING DANCE TRIVIA

Swing dancers don't always pair off

When most people think of swing, they imagine dancers pairing off to perform synchronized footwork to energetic, old-school music. However, you can also learn to swing dance alone, or with a large group of people. It's incorporated into many modern and contemporary jazz routines, in which groups of dancers synchronize their swings, bounces, and taps in a wide variety of creative patterns.

Individual routines are also more commonplace than you'd think, and they've always been an important part of swing's evolution. In fact, one example of a solo swing dance—the Charleston—became a fame-making move for Hollywood stars like Dean Collins and Josephine Baker. Whether you learn the Lindy Hop or Swinging Charleston, the basics are the same: an eight-step sequence of fast-kicking, foot-tapping dance moves that take you backwards and forwards in quick succession.
